AFFIDAVIT OF ROB SHORE

I, Rob Shore, being duly sworn and deposed, hereby state that if called to testify in this matter, I could and would testify to the following to my personal knowledge:

1. I was a court observer at the hearing on May 22, 2003 in the courtroom occupied by Judge Daniel R. Miranda, case no. 2001-D-79454.
2. I observed that Judge Miranda engaged in violating Mr. Burger's First Amendment Rights as to an adequate, complete, effective, fair, full, impartial, meaningful access to the court.
3. That Judge Miranda made a mockery of the Illinois Supreme Court decisions by his not complying with Skolnick v. Altheimer & Grey.
4. That Judge Miranda made a mockery of the Illinois Supreme Court decision of In re Armentrout, in that he did knowingly and intentionally failed to cite attorney Michael Radzilowsky for his fraud upon the court, and to rule accordingly.
5. That Judge Miranda was not impartial, nor did he even give the appearance of impartiality.
6. That Judge Miranda knowingly and intentionally engaged in covering up the misconduct of Judges Fe Fernandez and Philip S. Lieb.
7. That I have since had the opportunity to review a copy of the court transcript in the last couple days and find that Judge Miranda either does not know, or refuses to acknowledge, the Public Policy of the State of Illinois.

8. That it is my opinion that the actions of Judge Daniel Miranda has brought both him and the entire Illinois judiciary into disrepute.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.

Dated July 17, 2003
